

2008年度 終了いたしました。

講師： Vanessa Brooks Herd 先生

Course Description:

American society is an amalgamation of many diverse people, cultures, and distinct ways of living. Each separate group contributes to the richness and complexity known as American culture. In this course we will examine a few of the components which constitute culture in the United States to better understand “American-ness.”

- Week 1: Syllabus and Overview of Culture
- Week 2: Historical overview of non-dominant groups in America
- Week 3: The African American Perspective: Inventions and Other Contributions
- Week 4: The African American Perspective: Gospel Music
- Week 5: The African American Perspective: Soul Food
- Week 6: The Mexican American Perspective: Quinceanera
- Week 7: The Mexican American Perspective: Food South of Border
- Week 8: The Asian American Perspective: One People?
- Week 9: Thanksgiving: From the Perspective of the Three Groups
- Week 10: American Holidays: A Celebratio

